

Yoga Center of Carmel Discussion Evenings

Facilitated by Ronald Barton MDiv

“Our Search for Meaning”

Based on “Man’s Search for Meaning” by Viktor Frankl
and other texts

Wednesdays, March 15, 22, 29 and April 5

7:30-9:00pm

“Everything can be taken from a [person] but one thing: the last of the human freedoms—to choose one’s attitude in any given set of circumstances, to choose one’s own way.” _Viktor Frankl

The question of “meaning” opens itself to each of us periodically. The unsettled nature of our times can lead us to a sense of powerlessness and raise the questions of “Our Search for Meaning.”

In this four-week series of Discussion Evenings we will explore the inspiring and encouraging writings of some who have enriched us with their gifts of meaning. We will explore Viktor Frankl’s great book, “Man’s Search for Meaning,” called “One of the great books of our time,” by Rabbi Harold Kushner, teacher and author of “When Bad Things Happen to Good People.”

Ronald Barton, MDiv, brings a life-long passion for the Discussion Group as a medium for the transmission of wisdom. He has facilitated Discussion Groups in the fields of Contemporary Spirituality and the Arts. He has witnessed the power and the beauty of people sharing their stories in the context of mutual acceptance and appreciation, and with exposure to the great teachers of many traditions and the art, poetry and music of the ages.

Each week, during a Discussion Series, Ron sends to subscribers an email in which he communicates a synopsis of the ideas, music, and other material to be covered in the next Wednesday evening discussion. You are invited to subscribe to these emails. There is absolutely no obligation to attend the discussions. There is no charge, and you can unsubscribe at any time. Your email address is never shared. To subscribe, send an email to Ron Barton at ronbartoncarmel@live.com, and write YES.
